

From: American Track League
To: Emory University: Track & Field Complex
Date: 7/20/2015 Release: IMMEDIATE
Contact: Jordan Rice jordan@doylemanagement.com
Website: www.americantrackleague.com

Caribbean Legends Commit to American Track League in Atlanta

Atlanta, GA, July 20, 2015 — The American Track League is headed back to Atlanta for a night filled with entertainment both on and off the track. The meet will be held on August 1st with the gates opening at 6:30pm, live music to begin at 7:00pm and the first field event beginning at 7:30pm. The event will be held at Emory University at the Woodruff PE Center and Track Complex, 600 Asbury Circle, Atlanta, GA 30322. Tickets can be purchased at getatltx.com or at the gate. The meet will feature former World Record Holder in the 100m, 3-time Olympian and International Superstar, Asafa Powell. Powell is looking to run his fastest time this year of 9.80 seconds. Headlining the women's 200m is 4-time Olympian and 7-time Olympic medalist, Veronica Campbell Brown. Many other World Class athletes will be in attendance including Atlanta native and 3-Time Olympic Medalist DeeDee Trotter. In addition to the elite athletes on the field, DJ Urbanite Disco, a live band and the ATL Dance Team will provide entertainment throughout the meet.

The American Track League is a unique format track meet designed for fan interaction and entertainment. The meet will begin with the women's pole vault, where spectators are invited down onto the infield to get an up close and intimate experience. Athletes will also be available for autographs and pictures following their events.

The ATL has previously hosted meets in Bloomington, IN, Charlottesville, VA, San Marcos and Houston, TX. You don't want to miss out on this one of a kind track meet. For more information visit www.americantrackleague.com.